to the people, but being a friend of our enterprises tending to the benefit of the people, and learning that these gentlemen from Evansville and Chattanooga, W. day, has concluded to withhold his proposition until their arrival. We feel encouraged with the rapidity with which our people seem to embrace the project, and only wish they were all ready. We can only say, give in the good work. The Herald will be, and is for any and all enterprises looking to the development of our great country. We shall take no selfish or narrow view of any question.

OWENSBORO WANTS OUR RAILROAD.
Owensboro seems to have come to the conclusion all at once that it wants the Bowling Green and Ohio River railroad, and wants it built to connect the Falls of Rough road at Owensville, Millwood and Leitchfield. A writer from Owensboro to a gentleman in Bowling Green, which letter was published in the Bowling Green Democrat of January 5, says:

"We have a letter from Owensboro which says that they want to build a new line from Owensboro to Bowling Green, and that they want to build it to connect the Falls of Rough road at Owensville, Millwood and Leitchfield.
